THE UNION

VOL. XX.—NO. 5977 PORTLAND, OREGON FRIDAY, MAY 2[illegible], 1880 PRICE—TEN CENTS

GENERAL NEWS

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Large Cattle Export

NEW YORK, May —The unprecedented number of 3990 cattle were shipped to Europe from this port yesterday, besides sheep, horses, etc. Shipments of live stock and meats for the next five weeks are expected to more than double the preceding years. Orders have been sent west for 10,000 extra head.

The Proposed Santa Claus and Maud S Contest

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Spirit of the Times will publish a letter from Capt. G. M. Stone of Cincinnati making the following propositions for a race between Maud S. and Santa Claus:

First—He will match Maud S. against Santa Claus for a series of five races, mile heats, 3 in 5, to harness, no more than two of said races to be trotted in any one state, and to be trotted in the states of Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York.

Second—He will make a match for a single race for $5000 a side over a good mile track in one of the states named in the first proposition.

Third—He will make a single race on the terms mentioned in the second proposition, with the exception that the race be trotted for the gate receipts, the gross amount to be paid over to E. A. B[illegible]k, who shall within thirty days thereafter donate the entire amount to some charitable institution to be named by the winner of the race.

The Spirit says editorially: The parties are now separated only by two points—whether the race shall be for $5000 or $2500 a side, and whether it shall be trotted on the same or on different tracks. We have reason, outside of natural inferences, to believe that the owner of Santa Claus will accede to the proposition of Capt. Stone.

One Woman Shoots Another.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—Mrs. Bateman, living six miles up the river, deliberately shot Mrs. Slinge with a double barreled shotgun this forenoon because the other refused to desist from cutting grass along the roadside. Two men witnessed the deed. There is intense excitement and threats of lynching.

Quarrel in the Cincinnati Conference

CINCINNATI, May 20.—The question of the election of a colored bishop was discussed in the M. E. conference. Dr. A. Wheeler declared that this movement was in the direction of diocesan episcopacy and the indefinite increase in the episcopal board.

Dr. Wentworth charged that the colored members were urged on to this by certain agitators of the Caucasian race.

Rev. Lewis (colored) opposed an election now.

Graham (colored) denounced Lewis as a traitor and made a strong argument for a colored bishop, and said that the people demanded it as a right.

Dr. Lanahan said that threats of abandonment of the church would not terrify it, and moved an indefinite postponement. Carried, 229 to 139.

CINCINNATI, May 19.—In the M. E. conference today several reports of committees were received and referred. Bishops Warren, Hurst and Foss proceeded according to the forms of the church.

Grain Prospects in the Northwest.

FARGO, May 19.—Interviews with nearly 100 farmers from various sections of the valley show that the universal conviction among them is that crop prospects were never better. Wheat is 20 per cent better this than last year at the same date. The yield of wheat tributary to the Northern Pacific last year was 6,000,000. The acreage and prospects of 1880 indicate 10,000,000. Wheat seeded just before the last storm, three weeks ago, is stronger, brighter and better than later seeding.

The Virginia Conservative Convention.

RICHMOND, May 20.—The conservative convention adhere to the two-thirds rule and adopted a resolution that the conservative part of Virginia affiliated with the national democratic party, and would not support any one for elector who did not declare in favor of the nominees of the national democratic convention.

Senator Gordon Resigns.

ATLANTA, May 20.—Senator John B. Gordon has sent in his resignation to the governor as U. S. senator to take effect immediately. The governor has accepted his resignation and will appoint a successor at once.

Senator Gordon assigns as a reason weariness with public affairs and pressure of private business.

The Kentucky Races.

LOUISVILLE, May 20.—In the first half mile for two year old colts, Hindoo won, Bathle second; time 50 seconds. The second race, half mile for two-year-old fillies, Brambetta won, Glenalla second; time 50 seconds. Third race, mile heats, Maggie May won, Mamie R. second; time 43¾, 43½, 43½.

The Point Breeze Races.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—The first race at Point Breeze was for the 2:26 class, which was won by Belle Oakley, May 2d; time, 2:28½, 2:29¼, 2:29¼, 2:29. Second race (2:33 class), Jersey Boy won, Dick Wright 2d. Seven heats were trotted. Best time 2:28.

Died.

NASHVILLE, May 20.—Ex-Governor Foot, superintendent of the mint at New Orleans, died this afternoon.

The Bolt in Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The Inter Ocean's Washington special acknowledges that at least six of the Pennsylvania delegation will vote for Blaine on the first ballot, but denies that 20 will, as has been asserted.

Good Work.

ATCHISON, Ks., May 20.—Five hundred and sixty-four miles of road has been built in the state within a year.

The Cincinnati Festival

CINCINNATI, May 20.—Over 4000 people attended the Musical Festival matinee today. Miss Amy Sherwin, Whitney and Campanini were the soloists. Six thousand people attended the festival tonight. Bethoven's Messiah solemnies was given with grand effect. The success was complete.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The George Bribery Charges

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The house committee on Pacific railroads decided relative to the George letter making charges of corruption in connection with the Texas Pacific Railroad, that the committee has no authority to investigate the matter unless the house shall see fit especially to authorize them to take the same action. The alleged corrupt transactions having occurred during the previous congress, and affecting the senate more particularly than the house, the committee decided that the subject was not a proper one for their consideration.

The Chinese Commission.

John F. Swift today received a dispatch from Secretary Evarts fixing June 17th as the day for the sailing of the Chinese commission for China.

Modifications in the Legislative Bill

Senate committee on appropriations today completed consideration of the legislative bill and it was reported back to the senate with a number of amendments. The committee restore to the present standard all salaries of senate employes which the house has proposed to reduce, the total amount at issue being about $25,000, and make provision for some additional clerical force in the several executive departments. The principal increase is an addition of $38,000 to the amount granted by the house for clerks in the patent office. The item for the senate contingent fund is increased $20,000. The total increase over the aggregate amount of the bill as it came from the house is $92,000. The committee strike out house provision for changes in the present law in regard to salaries of distillery store keepers and gaugers, and also strike out a requirement for the payment by the district court of one half the salaries of judges and officers of federal courts of this district.

That Letter.

It is a curious fact that the anonymous letter which figures in the Springer Finley controversy bears a resemblance to the handwriting of Finley's clerk, of Wm. S. King, and last Springer himself.

Adjournment.

Senator Davis, chairman of the committee on appropriations, thinks that congress may easily adjourn by May 31st, but certainly by June 10th.

CLEARING HOUSE RETURNS.

Louisville and San Francisco fall Behind Past Years Reports—Comment by the N. Y. "Public."

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Clearing house exchanges for the week ending the 15th are not as favorable or as uniform as those of some previous weeks, but they still show that the volume of business in most of the cities is very large. Louisville falls behind the corresponding week last year, as San Francisco does—the Public's table giving their loss in percentage at 6.6 and 11.2 respectively. The other towns have gained as follows: New York, 44.6; Boston, 8; Philadelphia, 26.2; Chicago, 49; Cincinnati, 3.6; St. Louis, [illegible]; Milwaukee, [illegible]; Pittsburg, [illegible]; Providence, 20.7; Kansas City, 34; Indianapolis, 13.0; Cleveland, [illegible]; New Haven, [illegible]; Lowell, 30 [illegible].

The general complaint that business is dull and hesitating, which is heard so often in the [illegible], must evidently be received with some caution and judicious interpretation. There is no longer the wild rush to buy goods of all kinds [illegible] which was seen some months ago, nor do the declining markets encourage larger purchases than suffice for the immediate demands of consumers, but the aggregate of purchases and payments is nevertheless very large. If the exchanges outside of this city are not quite as large as they were in some weeks of January and February, it must be remembered that there has been a great decline in prices, averaging more than [illegible] as much as 20 per cent [illegible]. [illegible] exchanges [illegible] $350,000,000 in the week [illegible] would not be more than equivalent as respects quantities of products to [illegible] $200,000,000 or $212,000,000 at present prices. It is manifest that larger quantities of goods are represented by payments through clearing houses now than were so represented in January or February, notwithstanding the well known fact that there has been an enormous decline in speculative transactions in almost all kinds of merchandise, in stocks and in bonds. It shows that actual purchases for domestic consumption or shipment abroad represented by present exchanges are much larger as respects quantities than such purchases as were represented by exchanges three months ago.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

For San Francisco.

VICTORIA, May 20.—The steamship Dakota, Captain [illegible], sailed from Esquimalt for San Francisco at [illegible] today. She has on board a full complement of freight, consisting principally of grain and bar[illegible] staves from Washington territory.

THE HANLAN-COURTNEY RACE.

THE CANADIAN EASILY CARRIES THE HONORS

Courtney, Seeing Himself Beaten at the Start, Gives up and Fails to Row Over the Course

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Last evening the long debated question was fully settled at last and Hanlan won the title of champion oarsman of America. The great race, if it may be called a race, occupied just 36 minutes and 49 3-10 seconds by the computation of the official time keeper, though [illegible] less was claimed by parties upon the referee's boat. At 6:04 P. M. the Gedney, having on board the referee, judges, time keeper, several newspaper representatives and a score or more of distinguished guests, including Secretary Sherman and Thompson, Postmaster General Key and the ladies of their families, drew up to the starting point, and immediately after a second gun was fired as a signal for the men to get ready. Blaikie gave the cautionary "Are you ready?" and three seconds after, "Go," which sent the men away to a beautiful start. Courtney's oars [illegible] to catch a trifle in advance of his opponent, and with sturdy even grip upon the water sent his boat palpably in front. In the first half minute he pulled 18 strokes, or at the rate of 36 to the minute, while Hanlan was timed 31. Before Courtney had pulled 10 strokes, however, Hanlan had overhauled him, and each succeeding stroke sent his boat further to the fore. At the first flag, marking one eighth of a mile from the start, clear water could be seen between the stern of his boat and the bow of Courtney's. At this point Courtney turned to look over his shoulder and evidently realized that he was beaten, as he suddenly dropped his stroke to 30 and shook his head to some one on the referee's boat who had shouted to him to pull, saying "It isn't in me." Hanlan also eased up, and pulling steadily at 30 strokes to the minute, opened the gap as he pleased.

All interest in the race was gone when Hanlan reached the three quarter flag fully ten lengths in advance. At the first mile he was pulling 31 strokes to the minute and leading by nearly fifteen boat's lengths, Courtney laboring unsteadily at about 28 and frequently casting a despairing glance over his shoulder. Soon after passing the mile flag Courtney stopped rowing, removed his handkerchief, dipped it in the water and replaced it on his head, repeating the operation half a dozen times. Turning the next mile his stroke, which at the first was faultless, became more and more erratic. Hanlan reached the two mile flag in 13 minutes and 3¾ seconds, just one-eighth of a mile in advance of Courtney, who stopped finally three eighths of a mile from the turn, or two and one eighth miles from the start, and turning his boat pulled leisurely over the course and disembarked at his quarters at the Potomac boat house. Hanlan pulled on to the turning stake and squared away for the finish, in 17 minutes and 14 seconds from the start. On the way home Hanlan gradually overhauled Courtney, and thousands on shore and upon boats and steamers which lined the course, not knowing that Courtney had not turned the stake boat, imagined that the race was a debatable issue and rent the air with cheers for their respective favorites. Hanlan, however, soon passed Courtney and pulled leisurely to the last eighth of the course, when in response to the blowing of whistles and cheers from thousands of spectators he quickened to a 40 stroke and exhibited a splendid burst of speed to the finish, which he reached in 36 minutes 49 3-10 seconds from the time of starting. Pulling up to the referee's boat, Hanlan was awarded the race by the referee and cordially congratulated.

Hanlan then picked his way through scores of steamers and river craft of every description and reached his quarters at the Arlington boat house, where he was received amid the wildest demonstrations of delight and lifted bodily from his boat and carried upon the shoulders of his enthusiastic friends into the boat house.

Riley rowed over the course a little ahead of Hanlan all the way, increasing his lead toward the close. Hanlan made a speech to serenaders in the evening, saying that he came to row a race and regretted the opportunity was not given him. He denounced Riley as no gentleman and offered to row Riley tomorrow for $1000 or $10,000.

A Race Arranged Between Hanlan and Riley.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—As both Hanlan and Riley have expressed themselves anxious for a race, citizens have subscribed a purse, and it is now definitely arranged that the race between Hanlan and Riley will take place on Wednesday, May 26th, over the same course rowed by Hanlan and Courtney today. Two-thirds of the purse goes to winner, and one-third to the other contestant.

Hanlan Takes the "Swag."

Hanlan received his $6000 today. Riley and Hanlan meet next week, the winner to get $2000.

The Australian Champion Wants to Try Hanlan.

LONDON, May 20.—The Australian friends of Trickett have deposited fifty pounds for a match with Hanlan, who has been telegraphed. Patrons of rowing in New South Wales have united to send Trickett to England, and are prepared to support him in his endeavors.

AFTER THE ROUT.

Beaconsfield Sees "Grounds for Hope"—He will not Retire from the Leadership of his Party, Etc.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, May 20.—Four hundred and fifty noblemen and gentlemen were present at a meeting of conservatives at Bridgewater House yesterday, including Lords Salisbury and Carnarvon, Sir Stafford Northcote and Mr. Cross. Lord Beaconsfield, after having expressed a hope that the proceedings would be regarded as strictly private, referred to the sudden change in the position of parties, but he saw no reason to despair. There were already signs of encouragement. If the conservatives were true to their principles he looked forward to their return to power at no distant period. He expressed surprise that Gladstone, after his repeated expression of a desire to retire from political controversy, should accept two posts. Lord Beaconsfield denied that he ever intended to resign the premiership. He recommended that conservatives maintain an attitude of dignified opposition. To a certain extent radicalism for the present was triumphant, but nothing would induce him to attribute the defeat of the conservatives to a desire for change. He considered it impossible for the present ministry, with its discordant elements, to last long. Sir Robert Peel, Sir Stafford Northcote and Lords Carnarvon and Salisbury also spoke.

Another Report of Beaconsfield's Speech.

In his speech at the meeting of conservatives at Bridgewater house yesterday, it is stated Beaconsfield admitted great surprise at the result of the election. He took upon himself part of the blame for the dissolution of parliament, but said that party whips were not blameless, as the defeat of the conservatives was greatly due to lamentable deficiencies in organization, which he trusted would be remedied in future, and with that view suggested the appointment of a committee with W. H. Smith as chairman. He said that rumors of his retirement from the leadership of the party were unfounded. If the party considered his retention of the leadership an advantage, whatever ability he possessed would be devoted to their service.

Lord Carnarvon, who was warmly cheered, said that he had seceded from the government in consequence of a difference with his colleagues upon a single measure. The composition of the new ministry filled him with doubt and dismay, and he felt it his duty to support the conservative party to the utmost of his power.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Parliamentary.

LONDON, May 20.—It is stated that the conservatives are determined to oppose the election of Sir Wm. Harcourt at Derby. It is said that Sir Robert Peel will be invited to stand.

LONDON, May 20.—A meeting of the constituents of Plymsoll was very enthusiastic. After a statement by Plymsoll, giving as a reason for vacating his seat that Sir William Harcourt would further his shipping reforms, a resolution was passed unanimously, but reluctantly, inviting Sir William to become their candidate.

An Obnoxious Official.

LONDON, May 20.—The recall of Sir Bartle Frere threatens to create considerable dissatisfaction within the liberal party. Several advanced liberal new papers, including the Pall Mall Gazette, are clamorous for his recall. Members of the present government here strongly censured the Beaconsfield cabinet for retaining him after blaming him for precipitating the Zulu war. At the time it was alleged that court influence maintained Sir Bartle Frere in his position, and anything savoring of court influence is especially distasteful to that section of the liberal party which now demands his recall.

Extraordinary Action

[illegible] J. Smyth, recently elected home ruler member for Tipperary, has placed his resignation in the hands of his constituents. He says that events since the election bring home to him forcibly the truth that he is out of harmony with what appears to be public opinion in Ireland.

Honors for Parnell

LONDON, May 20.—The Parnell reception committee decided to hold a free public meeting at St. James's Hall on the 4th of June, followed by a great demonstration in Trafalgar square.

Another Strike

Sailors and stokers at Liverpool are about to strike for an advance of wages.

A Radical Band Dispersed

[illegible] May —The police have disbanded a [illegible] of advanced radicals [illegible] the [illegible] by a [illegible] advan[illegible].

Germany on the Lookout.

LONDON, May 20.—A Berlin correspondent learns on [illegible] authority that Germany intends to increase her naval force on eastern Asiatic stations [illegible] as [illegible] assumes a more grave aspect.

The Italian Elections

ROME, May 20.—Almost complete results of elections for members of the chamber of deputies show the return of one hundred and twenty constitutionalists, one hundred and seventy three ministerialists and sixty one members of the dissident left. Second ballots are expected to make these figures 1[illegible] and 82 respectively.

The Rheims Strike

RHEIMS, May 20.—It is generally believed that some secret political committee provoked and organized the present labor strike.

A heavy raft of logs, coming down the Yakima one night last week, formed a jam against the abutment of Durr's bridge, in the Kittitas valley, causing delay to loggers and serious damage to the bridge.

THE SPRINGFIELD CONVENTION.

Compromise Effected in the Cook County Case

John A. Logan Takes a Hand—Full Report of Proceedings in the Convention—No Business Transacted—The Grant Men have a Clear Majority

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

SPRINGFIELD, May 20.—The committee on credentials met at 8:30 and resumed consideration of the Cook county contest.

Kirk Hawes presented a written statement of the position of the Farwell hall delegation relative to the pledge required by the convention, to [illegible] its decision, as follows: Delegates from the county of Cook from the regular convention held at Farwell hall, denying for themselves and their constituents any lawful power in the convention or in this committee to impose on any contestant any conditions whatever precedent to rendering justice according to law and equity, as well as hereby submit under protest to the resolution as we understand it, for the [illegible] in which we were not permitted to take part, as the only means left to prevent threatened disfranchisement of the republicans of Cook county and the probable loss of the state to the republican candidates. It is but fair for me to add, as it might perhaps be questioned, a word as to the resolution as we understand it.

At a meeting held in Chicago prior to coming here it was voted unanimously, without a dissenting voice, that inasmuch as we were the regular elected delegates, in our judgment we would stand for their ninety two of us to go into convention or remain out. I don't state this to the committee as a threat, but simply as an explanation of our position. We simply passed it upon the ground of right, without any reference to any impression it may make upon your minds in any other direction. That resolution in another form has been passed twice since this time. By appearing here as we do and acceding to the terms imposed upon us, we wish it distinctly understood that if you shall be pleased to admit a portion of this delegation and shall reject a portion, it is left entirely to our option whether that portion will go into the convention or stay out. We may rescind that resolution, we may not. We expect, however, that we shall stand together as we understand it now. Of course if you reject us all then there is no difficulty. All you can ask under this resolution is this. We do not intend to create any disturbance, as has been circulated here, but simply to act like men and members of the republican party and do what our constituents require us to do.

The committee then excluded all outsiders, reporters included, to consider the sufficiency of their response. On reassembling the chair announced that the committee would be unable to report before 1 o'clock, and the convention took a recess until 2 P. M.

The republican state convention began its second day's session at 9 o'clock. The committee on credentials reported, recommending a settlement of the contest in Greene county by admitting four Grant and four Blaine delegates and giving each half the vote. This was approved and the delegates admitted. The chair stated that the committee would not be able to report on the Cook county contest for at least two hours, whereupon a series of motions to adjourn, take a recess, etc., were made.

Robbins of Adams, on behalf of the Blaine-Washburne men, said that the only way of getting an early report from the committee was by relieving it of part of its labor. He therefore offered a resolution instructing the committee not to consider the claims of any contesting delegates who bolted from any convention which met at the place and at the time designated by the proper authority. This hit at the Palmer house delegation was received with tremendous cheers by the Blaine Washburne men, and a motion to table the resolution occasioned louder applause on the part of the Grant men. A call resulted in tabling the resolution by a vote of 351 to 251, showing 100 majority for the Grant men outside of Cook county. The convention took a recess of one hour.

The committee on credentials decided by a vote of 11 to 8 that the statement of the Farwell hall delegation was sufficient. One hour was allowed each side to present evidence and argument, which concludes at one. The committee is now in secret session.

The convention met at 2 o'clock and waited until after 3 without any business whatever being attempted.

Logan offered the following:

Resolved, That debate be limited to thirty minutes on a side on the question of the Cook county contest, and that no motion to adjourn or other dilatory motions shall be considered until that question is decided, and that each delegation may select one person from their delegation, if they choose, to present their case to the convention.

The roll of counties were called on the resolution, with but little debate, resulting ayes 388, noes 212.

A point of order was made that the resolution required a two thirds vote, as it suspends a parliamentary rule that a motion to adjourn is always in order.

The chair overruled this on the ground that the convention was only temporarily organized and had not adopted rules of order.

At 3:45 the committee on credentials appeared and submitted three reports, which were read.

The first report recites that there are duplicate credentials from Cook county owing to conventions having met and sent delegates. They find that the state central committee did not call upon the republicans of Cook county to send delegates, but called upon the republicans of first seven senatorial districts comprising that county to send delegates. Each of these senatorial districts is independent of and distinct from any other republican organization in Cook county for all purposes of representation in this convention. Having the action of the ward primaries before them, it was easier to determine on what is substantial justice towards the interests involved. Neither of the parties calling themselves the Cook county convention was regular or legitimate, nor is their action valid. Each of the senatorial districts is entitled to the same representation here. The will of the honest voter at the primaries should be represented here, and this would be done by disregarding both of the county conventions, and according the seats in this convention to delegates from the senatorial districts. By the first report 35 Grant delegates and 56 Blaine and Washburne delegates are admitted. It is signed by J. H. Moore.

The second report, signed by the minority, refers to the pledge exacted from the Farwell hall delegates and says that their manager submitted a so called pledge which contained a reservation, which is recited together with Mr. Hawes' explanation. The report says that this is a substantial failure to comply with the terms of the resolution under which the committee on credentials were instructed to consider the claims of contestants who frankly pledge themselves to accept and abide by the decision of the convention. Therefore the Farwell hall delegation has no right to be heard before the committee, and the Palmer house delegation having complied with the terms of resolution and having credentials should be admitted. The Farwell Hall delegation is censured for consuming time and evading the plain question. C. Grant, Wm. Shaw and K. D. Nolan sign this report.

The third report recites that the Cook county convention was regularly summoned to nominate 92 delegates to attend the state convention, without reference to senatorial districts; that the county committee, composed mostly of Grant men, did gross injustice to the entire body of voters in serving summary notice of election. However, there was a large vote, which resulted in giving Grant 59, Blaine 46, and Washburne 86 delegates to the county convention. These 191 delegates met at Farwell hall, and Mr. Singer of the central county committee attempted to appoint a chairman, a right the delegates refused to allow, he not being a delegate. Elliott Anthony was selected by an overwhelming vote to be chairman, and the convention was regularly organized. The minority caused much confusion and finally bolted with a beautiful discipline that implied preconcerted action.

Fifty-eight delegates went to the Palmer house and declared their defeated candidate to be elected. One hundred and thirty three remained in Farwell hall and elected 92 delegates to the state convention and then adjourned. The Palmer house minority also sent 92 alleged delegates. These deserters wrought the whole wrong which now convulses this state. The precedent was all contrary to the pretense that Singer had the right to nominate a chairman. Anthony was regularly elected. The bolters left all their credentials in the regular convention. The audacity of the 58 is only equaled by the other secession of 1861. Both rest on the same principle—resistance to the will of the majority.

G. [illegible] Hurlburt and eight others sign this report and demand admission of the Farwell hall delegation.

After reading these reports a motion was made to adopt No. 1, and an amendment to substitute No. 3.

It was decided to give the present [illegible] of the Farwell hall delegation the opening and closing speeches, allowing each thirty minutes.

Kirk Hawes of Chicago presented the case of the Farwell hall delegates, and Emery Storrs of Chicago that of the Palmer house delegates. Both addresses were loudly cheered by the adherents of each side.

When the hour expired Gen. Hurlbut of Boone moved that the delegates from the three senatorial districts which the Grant men did not contest be allowed to vote on this question, but the chair ruled the motion out of order.

The roll of counties was then called on motion to adopt No. 3, which recommended the seating of the entire Farwell Hall delegation, resulting ayes [illegible].

The roll was called on the adoption of the first report, which seats 35 from the Palmer house and 56 from the Farwell hall, resulted ayes 311, noes 281.

The temporary organization was then made permanent.

The [illegible] briefly and the convention adjourned at 8 o'clock.

MINNESOTA FOR WINDOM.

Harmonious Meeting of the Republicans—Blaine the Second Choice of most of the Delegates, Etc

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

ST. PAUL, May 19.—The republican state convention met at noon. Wm. Hyatt chairman and Chas. W. Johnson secretary. Committees were appointed and adjournment had until 3 o'clock P. M., when the convention reassembled and made the officers permanent. The committee on credentials reported, and a special committee selected the following delegates to Chicago, who were elected at large: D. Sinclair, A. Whipple, Rice, D. M. Sabin, Dorilus Morrison, and four alternates. From districts: First, A. C. Wedge, J. V. Daniels; second, K. Marcus, George Bryant; third, E. F. Drake, J. F. Kindred.

Resolutions were adopted that while not ignoring other candidates' merits, they were loyal to their own distinguished son, whose qualifications were great and fully appreciated, whose purity, ability and personal fitness, unswerving republicanism and [illegible] endeared him to the hearts of his countrymen. They therefore presented Wm. Windom as a candidate for president, as one who would [illegible] and harmonize all, instructing delegates to [illegible] his nomination as the first choice of the republicans of Minnesota.

Resolved, That the republicans of Minnesota hereby express their unqualified approval of the present administration of the general government, [illegible] wise and firm representation of the principles of the republican party.

A resolution declaring James G. Blaine the second choice of the convention was tabled by a decisive vote. Adjourned at [illegible] o'clock.

Interviews with delegates indicate that Blaine is the second choice of all but three. Out of these is for Grant, one for Sherman and one for Edmunds.

THE CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

In Session at Oakland—a Discordant Session—General Proceedings, etc

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OAKLAND, Cal., May 19.—The democratic state convention met here today. Mr. Wilson was chosen temporary chairman. Upon taking the chair he said: I do not desire or intend to make a speech, but I think that the coming election is one of the most important ever before the American people. The democratic party never fears an open enemy on open ground, with flags flying and forces marshalling, but in this contest we must watch the insidious advances of an enemy seeking to undermine the foundation of the government under forms of law. It is a question of imperialism, or whether the country is to exist on the original foundation of integrity of all the states. Are we not in favor of preserving the states, one in many, with rights belonging to each, instead of a centralized government? In conclusion he said: It must be understood that the democratic party is in favor of the constitution with all its amendments. In regard to the distinguished gentlemen whose names have been mentioned for the presidency, I am for the nominee of the Cincinnati convention, and I know the party will support him with warmth and enthusiasm. The speech was frequently applauded.

The convention then elected H. C. Guessford, DeWitt Lawrence, P. A. Reagan, Wm. Gibson, J. T. O'Brien and John A. Coffey temporary secretaries. A committee of thirteen on credentials—three from each congressional district and one at large—was directed to be appointed by the chair, who appointed at large W. J. Finnen.

First District—Hermann, McCarthy and Hopkins of San Francisco.

Second District—W. B. C. Brown of Sacramento, C. E. B. Terry of San Joaquin and Foote of Alameda.

Third District—Spencer of Napa, Briggs of Butte and Sewell of Mendocino.

Fourth District—Holmes of Fresno, Baxter White of San Bernardino and Loocher of Mariposa.

J. West Martin of Alameda moved the appointment of a committee of nine on permanent organization—two from each congressional district and one at large.

White of Los Angeles raised a point of order that no business could be transacted until a report was received from the committee on credentials.

Ryland spoke, holding that the point was well taken. Motions to adjourn and for recess were offered, but the motion to appoint a committee on organization and order of business was carried. A motion also prevailed to call the roll and allow each county to present credentials.

The convention reassembled and adopted a report from the committee on credentials which admitted the Saratoga hall delegation in the 10th senatorial district and the San Mateo delegation as appointed by the county committee.

After appointing a committee on platform and resolutions the convention adjourned till 10 A. M. tomorrow.

Congressional conventions are in progress at San Francisco tonight.

Thursday's Proceedings

OAKLAND, May 20.

Paulsell introduced a resolution that the chair suggest seven active democrats for members at large of the state central committee.

Lerch of San Diego moved to lay the resolution and amendments on the table.

Lewis of Tehama said that this would carry everything to the table.

John C. Murphy of San Francisco asked for a ruling of the chair on the effect of a motion to lay on the table.

The chair ruled that if carried it would carry the whole subject to the table.

Lerch then withdrew his motion.

Paulsell's resolution was lost.

Matthews of Tehama introduced a resolution that an expression of the choice of the convention for the presidency be ascertained by calling the roll of counties.

A motion to indefinitely postpone prevailed.

To a motion relating to the election of delegates to the Cincinnati convention, Spencer of Stanislaus moved that delegates be required to come before the convention and express preference for the presidency. He said it had gone out that the convention of California was in favor of one man. He spoke of Thurman and his record on the Chinese question. The temper of the speech was that the issue between Field, Tilden and Thurman should be fairly met. Great applause followed the allusion to Thurman.

Lewis of Tehama did not want to instruct, but he wanted it to be understood that the people of California did not endorse the Chinese decision of Justice Field. There can be no objection to saying who the choice of the convention is.

Several more resolutions were introduced, among them one declaring against the promotion of any man from the judicial branch of the government to the presidency. Another resolution was introduced declaring that a new Jefferson was needed to resist centralization, that Tilden was the man for the place, and that the delegation from California be instructed to vote for his renomination. [Cries of "No, No."] The chair ruled it out of order. A resolution requiring an expression of preference was ruled to be properly before the convention.

W. B. C. Browne opposed instructions, but was in favor of a declaration of California's preference.

Fitcher of Placer said that it would be cowardly to withhold expression of preference. It had gone forth that the convention was for Field. He read a resolution declaring that man the first choice of the California democracy, saying that he would offer it at the proper time. [Prolonged applause.]

Matthews of San Francisco spoke of Thurman as a great debater and a great democrat, but he asked delegates why throw firebrands in the convention? Let your delegates go to Cincinnati uninstructed.

King of San Francisco moved the previous question, but as it created a breeze he withdrew it.

Tuttle of Sonoma would not withdraw his second, because the country delegates wanted to go home.

[illegible] wanted to be heard, and wanted the resolutions discussed and not smothered in committee. If there was a job to defeat the will of the great mass of the party it was time to know it.

Recess.

THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT

Large Attendance in the House—Synopsis of the Queen's Speech.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, May 20.—The parliament reassembled today. The queen's speech refers to the cordial relations with all powers, hopes for the speedy execution of the whole treaty of Berlin, and refers to the mission of G. J. Goschen in that connection; says the efforts to pacify the Afghans and establish a strong and independent but friendly government will be increased. The condition of India's finances recently made known will require special attention. The policy of confederation in South Africa is advised, but Transvaal will be retained. Imports and exports and other signs indicate a revival of trade, but depression is lately perceived. The revenue continues unabated. Estimates of income laid before last parliament will probably not be exceeded. The late season for convening will interfere with legislation. The peace preservation act in Ireland will expire on the first of June and will not be renewed. The loyalty and good sense of the Irish people justify reliance in provisions of ordinary law firmly administered for the maintenance of peace and order. Acts for the mitigation of distress in Ireland have been serviceable to that end. The question of sufficiency of advances authorized by acts is under consideration. Burial's bill, also a bill to protect tenants against injury from ground game, a bill to determine the liability of employers for accidents to servants, and a bill for the extension of borough franchise to Ireland will be submitted to parliament.

Lord Selborne, lord high chancellor, read the speech. The house of commons was crowded, but the attendance in the house of peers meagre.

An Independent Political Movement in Canada

MONTREAL, May 20.—A new political movement has been inaugurated here, the founders of which hold a meeting for [illegible] tomorrow night. The prominent features of the platform are [illegible] rights and [illegible] of an independent nation.

WEST INDIES.

The Drought at Jamaica

KINGSTON, May 1.—The drought continues. One shower of rain fell last week in the vicinity of Falmouth, the first for three months. Water is so scarce that it sells for [illegible] cents a gallon. Stock of all kinds are dying for want of water. Dry weather is seriously [illegible], and fears are entertained for next year's crop.

Idaho

Horse buyers from Nebraska are buying up horses in the vicinity of Lewiston.

Recent rains have increased the prospect of excellent crops in various portions of Idaho.

The citizens of Nez Perce county are generally signing a petition to have a courthouse built at Lewiston.

The dwelling of John Carpenter at Boise City, together with its contents, was burned last week. Loss about $1500.

The late spring has so retarded the opening of the fruit buds that a good fruit season may now be regarded as almost among the certainties of the future.

Last week, in consequence of the cold snap, the Clearwater was so low that several loads of freight were detained, the water being too deep to ford and too shallow to ferry them over.

Contradictory Statements.

The following dispatch was received last night by a staff officer of the department of Arizona in answer to inquiries about the reported outbreak of the San Carlos Indians:

SAN CARLOS, May 19.

There has been no outbreak of reservation Indians on San Pedro to my knowledge. Eskiminzine and Bagully have been here since Thursday. There are seven Indians only absent from San Carlos, and they are at San Pedro and Arivaca with permission to cultivate land. I know of none absent with passes.

Suicide.

A Frenchman named Lermitte, proprietor of a restaurant on Merchant street between Montgomery and Sansome, committed suicide this morning by hanging himself.

THE W. P. C. CONVENTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—The convention reassembled at 10 A. M., Vice President Pond in the chair. The credentials of Allen of Napa were presented and he was admitted to a seat. The special order of business, consideration of the first section of the constitution, was taken up, Branhart's substitute being still under debate. During the discussion Kenny of San Francisco attempted to read an extract from the speech of Dr. S. F. Miller in the greenback convention, published in the National Journal, the New York greenback organ, which he asserted opposed the principles of the W. P. C. Great confusion followed, in which the lobby joined. Order was finally restored, reading of the article finished and the debate continued.

Clark of Santa Clara announced that he had been requested by Denis Kearney to read a written communication, giving his (Kearney's) views of the subject under consideration. Objections and great confusion followed, but the chair decided that the communication should be read, Kearney being an ex officio member of the convention and entitled to be heard. The communication was in effect as follows: Regarding the question of sending delegates to Chicago, is the W. P. C. a reform party, or is it a side show to be peddled out to the highest bidder? It endorsed Thurman; why not endorse Hendrick B. Wright? My platform is: "The Chinese must go, currency, land and labor reform." If you fail to send delegates to the Chicago convention you will become the laughing stock of the entire producing masses of the United States. I favor sending delegates to Chicago first, last and all the time. [Great applause.] Show people you are reformers, not asses seeking petty positions as pound keepers or under-strappers in the county jail.

(Signed) DENIS KEARNEY.

Day of San Francisco moved that the communication be received, spread on the minutes and published in the papers.

Waldron of Los Angeles moved an amendment that it be accepted as the expression of the convention. A hot debate ensued, the previous question called for and roll call demanded, lost 35 to 45. Debate continued.

Discussion over the reception of Kearney's communication occupied the time of the convention till 4 P. M., the debate being very hot. Waldron's amendment was finally adopted—55 to 42.

Gallagher of San Francisco changed his vote and gave notice of reconsideration amid great excitement. An appeal was taken from the decision of the chair sustaining the motion to reconsider. After a long continued and boisterous discussion, during which recrimination was freely indulged in, the whole matter was laid on the table. Adjournment was then had until 8 P. M. amid excitement and confusion.

Immediately after adjournment most of the country members, with a number of city delegates, met in the hall, Vice President Miller in the chair, and appointed a temporary sergeant-at-arms to keep the lobby in order. Miller said that he understood that the meeting was merely an assemblage of interior delegates for consultation. If it was to be considered a reconvening of the state convention he would not take the chair.

Waldron of Los Angeles said that this was the real workingmen's convention, as adjournment had not been fairly carried, and the city members had sought to obstruct proceedings. If Miller would not continue in the chair some one else could be found to take it. Udell of Yolo thought that the meeting should be considered merely a conference and caucus. The chair wanted the responsibility of breaking up the convention to rest on the city, not on the country members, and suggested that if those present considered that the motion to adjourn the convention was wrongfully decided in the affirmative, then they should at once adjourn their meeting and meet again in convention with the city delegates in the evening. The chair suggested that, considering the meeting as a convention, they adjourn then, immediately reassemble as a caucus to consider their future course. H. M. Moore was chosen temporary secretary.

The question of disagreement was then debated at length, the point being fully developed that the opposition were being manipulated in the interest of the democracy, while those present were in favor of the greenback labor party.

The meeting finally adjourned to meet with the whole convention at 8 P. M.

The meeting then resolved itself into a caucus, and after coming to an informal understanding to act together in the convention adjourned.

There will probably be a hot fight this evening, as the city delegation will endeavor to drum up enough absentees to control the convention in the interest of a bargain alleged to have been made with the democracy.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The convention reassembled at 8 last evening, Vice President Miller in the chair. Gallagher moved to reconsider the vote by which Kearney's communication was adopted as the sense of the convention. The chair ruled the motion out of order, as notice of reconsideration had been given for 8 o'clock and that hour had passed by several minutes. Motion appealed from the decision of the chair. To avoid all ill feeling the chair withdrew its ruling, though still holding that it was correct. A motion to lay the motion to reconsider on the table was adopted, ayes 51, nays 5.

Day of San Francisco, in order, as he said, to perpetuate the union of the party in the state, offered a resolution to send twelve delegates to the national greenback labor convention, four at large, to be chosen by the convention, and two from each congressional district, to be nominated by district conventions, the delegation to be instructed to vote for Thurman for president, [illegible] nominations to be subject to confirmation by a future convention of the W. P. C., except that of Thurman, which was to be considered settled, [illegible] rejected, yeas 15, nays [illegible]. Many members explained their votes, showing that some voted no because instructed by their clubs to vote to send no delegates to the greenback convention, others because they would not have [illegible] pledged to vote for [illegible] man or any other man who had not taken a pledge to support the labor party.

J. R. John[illegible] of [illegible] introduced a resolution that [illegible] delegates be sent to the national greenback labor convention. A motion to lay [illegible] till morning was carried by a vote [illegible] and the [illegible].

[illegible] of Yolo [illegible] the [illegible] to the greenback labor convention with the call of the state executive committee. Immediately after adjournment [illegible] in favor of [illegible] greenback [illegible]. A. W. Smith [illegible] was chosen president, [illegible] H. M. Moore secretary [illegible] of the party [illegible] Mrs. Clark of Alameda [illegible] C. Miller [illegible] Messrs. Swain and [illegible] this meeting [illegible] which [illegible]. A roll was made and [illegible] delegates found to be present, representing Alameda, Calaveras, Humboldt, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Clara, Solano, Sonoma, Yolo, Yuba and San Joaquin.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The workingmen's convention completed its business before daylight. Branhart's substitute for the first section of the constitution was voted down and the original adopted with the remainder of the instrument.

The convention then elected four delegates at large to the greenback labor convention as follows: Denis Kearney of San Francisco, L. Musselman of [illegible], John Robinson of Santa Clara and Stephen Maybell of San Francisco, and adjourned sine die.

W. P. C. Congressional Nomination

The workingmen of the third congressional district have nominated Chancellor Hartson of Napa for congress.

The new council chamber at Salem is to be furnished at a cost not exceeding [illegible].

The question of building a county bridge across the Clackamas at Baker's ferry is being agitated.

The prospect for an abundant yield of all kinds of fruit in Clackamas county is unusually good.

The schooner Enterprise is in the hands of underwriters and lies waterlogged at Flavel's wharf, Astoria.

J. W. Bewley, father of F. M. Bewley of Salem, died at his residence near Sheridan on the 10th inst.

Miss Rebecca Shiel, sister of Hon. Geo. K. Shiel of Salem, died at the residence of Gen. J. F. Miller, near that city, on the 19th inst.

Five children of Herman and Theresa Wa[illegible]neck have died of diphtheria near Viola, Clackamas county, during the last three weeks.

The Barlow road across the Cascade mountains will be open for travel about the first of June. There is now about six feet of snow on the summit.

G. W. Hume's boats have averaged about 32 fish to the boat daily during the present week, and this is supposed to be a fair average for all the canneries.

Mrs. Kester, who died suddenly at Oregon City last week, had been a resident of that place since 1846, and a member of the Baptist church there for a third of a century.

The authorities of Oregon City require citizens to remove the moss from the roofs of their buildings as a precautionary measure against fire when the dry weather sets in.

The Enterprise states that some of the young men who had broken off the opium habit have again become addicted to the vice, and threatens to publish names if the practice is not abandoned.

Mrs. Nancy Robbins, relic of Nathaniel Robbins, died recently at the residence of her son, near Oregon City, at the age of 82 years. She had lived in Clackamas county with slight intermission since 1852.

A committee appointed by the county court to examine and report the cost of building a wagon road from Jacob's bridge, near the paper mill, to Baker's ferry on the Clackamas, estimate the said cost to be about $3550. The committee further express the opinion that if such a road was built there would be more travel on it than upon any other in Clackamas county.

Union was visited by a brisk snow storm on the 12th inst.

The new Presbyterian church at Union is rapidly approaching completion.

A number of improvements are kept back at Union on account of the great scarcity of lumber.

The greenbackers of Union county will hold a convention at Cove on the 22d inst., and put a county ticket in the field.

A China woman was standing on the bank of the creek at Union the other day, when the ground gave way, throwing her into the water. She was drowned before she could be reached. Her countrymen gave her an elegant coffin and a demonstrative funeral.

Eastern Oregon Republican: At last the road over the Blue mountains has so far improved as to admit of the stage company carrying passengers the whole distance in a covered coach. This will certainly be found a great improvement on the dead-axe wagons, in which travelers have been compelled to perform the journey during the last few weeks.

Southern Oregon.

It is estimated that immigration from Coos county has depleted the voting population by 100 votes since the last general election.

The new schooner being built at Marshfield by Hans Reed is 87 feet keel and 35 feet beam. It is the largest ever built at his yard.

The herds of John Jackson, of Lake county, were attacked by four grizzlies a short time since. About 100 calves were killed or wounded before the bears were dispatched by the herders.

Bishop Morris passed through Colfax last Thursday on his way to Colville.

Colfax now supports six general merchandise stores. The citizens claim a new lease of prosperity.

E. McDaniel, one of the largest stock owners in Yakima valley, has disposed of his entire band of cattle to Joseph Teal.

A set of harness and some of the cargo of the ill-fated Palouse ferry boat have been recovered, being picked up by Indians.

Twenty five new lock boxes have been added to the Colfax postoffice, twenty of the same replacing glass boxes and the remainder occupying space in the money order window.

The postmaster general warns the people of [illegible]sville, Whitman county, that if they wish their postal privileges continued they must recommend a suitable postmaster without delay.

The report of W. W. Miller, sheep commissioner of Whitman county, gives the number of healthy sheep in the county at 53,689, unhealthy sheep at 30,260, making a total of 88,890 in the county.

Yakima Record: We learn, on good authority, that of the five hundred Piutes who a year and a half ago came to Fort Simcoe, scarcely two hundred all told now remain. Death or civilization has decimated their ranks fearfully.

Palouse Gazette: Messrs. Bleeler & Gose are making active preparations to burn a kiln of 150,000 brick about the 1st of June. This number is merely a start—enough only to give builders a few to commence with. Before the summer is gone they will have burned 1,000,000 brick. Ere long brick buildings will not be a wonder to the natives.

FRIDAY MORNING MAY 21 1880

McDONALD'S THREAT

General John McDonald the boss of the St. Louis whisky ring has been interviewed by a correspondent of the Chicago Times upon the former's position on the presidential aspirations of General Grant. McDonald as is well known was intimate at the White House during the first and part of the last four years of Grant's administration. He knew the ex-president as a Missouri farmer and had no small share in helping Grant to his first place upon the stage of war. The story of the correspondent is that he met McDonald at St Louis and at once proceeded to ask him if his presence was to be attributed to any connection on his part with the anti-third term convention which was in session in that city at the time of the interview. The reply was that his errand to St Louis was on purely private business and that though he knew a great deal he did not intend to make any disclosures until the proper time arrived and then he would talk right out but would make no mistake as to the time or place. He, however went on to give the interviewer a good many hints as to what he would say, and made some very broad threats of exposing something terrible if Grant should be nominated at Chicago.

A great many people will take McDonald's threat as coming from an unreliable man but he says he will prove every assertion which he makes, and in certain events he will bury some men so deep that the grave robbers will never undertake to find their political corpses. Just what or who he means is not definitely stated but he says

"I mean to say this: That I've sacrificed everything to an idea. I've been imprisoned and lost a fortune of a quarter of a million and been ostracized and abused as no man ever was before. Now why have I suffered it all in silence? There are men who will tell you I did it because I couldn't help myself. That shows all they know about it. I went to prison on an understanding and an idea, and by going to prison I saved this country the most frightful shame and disgrace that ever could have covered any country under the sun. Do you understand me? I walked into court, as you might say with the atmosphere of the president's blue room still in my clothing. I needn't have gone any farther than the court alone. I might have had company."

Coming as this does from an ex-convict and being aimed at a man who has occupied such a high position and possessing such a large share of the respect of the people, it will require incontestible proof before it is accepted as true. It is well known however that McDonald is no ordinary man and the correspondent of the Times says that while most of the Grant managers have affected contempt for him, and have assumed to care nothing for what he might know, judges of character who have taken any care to remember the past have regarded McDonald with more or less of expectant interest. To the stranger as well as those who know him John McDonald is a study. He began life on his own account at the somewhat tender age of 8 years. His eye teeth, his maternal apron-strings and his acquaintance with toys were cut at one and the same time. From that day—about 45 years ago—until this, he has hewn his own way and been at once the architect and builder of his own fortunes. Spare blonde, and wiry with uncertain bluish-gray eyes, a straight, clean-cut mouth and a nervous rapid manner of motion and of speech he looks the very incarnation of the spirit of western energy and western enterprise, and so he is. He went to St. Louis in 1848, when there were but forty thousand people there and by dint of wide-awake labor and shrewd management he made himself rich. In the days before the railroads came, he was a power on the river. His money and his muscle were alike famous from New Orleans to the upper settlements. When the war came he threw himself into it with a disregard of personal interests that cost him dearly, raised and equipped the first regiment that Missouri gave to the union army and fought like a wild cat until the end. He had known Grant when Grant was farming in Missouri, and had much to do with his first entry upon the stage of war. In the field they were more or less closely associated and when the people called the conqueror to the white house he went there also, with many others of the new president's camp-fire cronies. For seven years McDonald was a power behind the throne. With the federal patronage of seven states under his control and the confidence of Grant he made and unmade men at will. His fall was as heavy as his power had been great. When Bristow made his break at the whisky rings, and Babcock was indicted, McDonald returned from Washington and fresh from the private confidence of the president, deliberately assumed the aggregated odium of the whole exposure, refused to answer a question or tell a thing, and went to Jefferson City that the rest might go free. There was a certain heroism in the act that indicates the character of the man.

KELLY AND WALDO COMPARED

Judge Kelly is sixty years of age. All his life long he has been a strong partisan politician. His whole career has been spent in the atmosphere of fierce political warfare. He has never been much of a student of law. His nature is sluggish and nearly all he has learned of his profession was acquired in his youth more than thirty years ago. He is therefore far behind the times. He never did a large business in the law and his opportunities for becoming a profound lawyer were small, and even they were wasted and distracted by always running for office and figuring in political conventions. We believe he has never been regarded as more than an ordinary man in his profession. In 1870 he was elected to the United States senate as a kind of reward for a being a party hack but while in that body he never was any more than a cipher drawing his pay and contenting himself with casting his vote. The only notoriety he ever gained was in connection with the cipher dispatches, which had for their object the purchase of a republican elector and, for his part in that scheme, he only escaped through the forbearance of Mitchell who based his report on Senator Kelly's own oath that he was not aware of the offer to bribe. But no one can doubt that Kelly's own testimony and that of Bellinger shows they concocted the scheme and merely used Patrick's name to carry it on. Coming out of the senate he opened a law office, but the records of the court show that he had scarcely any practice of importance and his time was much occupied with mining and politics. He was appointed in 1878 as chief justice, and his decisions have caused a large amount of very severe criticism among citizens and in the press, so much so that an uneasiness now exists in the minds of thinking people in both parties. Doubtless his failure to become more distinguished is attributable to his lack of legal knowledge arising from his preference for politics over law. He is a man of large frame and sober countenance without any of the gifts of public speaking and hence his friends have desired to create the impression that he was a good judge of law. But his partisan political life, his failure to ever build up the practice of a first class lawyer and his unsatisfactory conduct for two years as chief justice all conspire to impress failure indelibly upon him as a judicial officer. And his age is so great that it is beyond reasonable hope that he will ever improve.

On the other hand Mr John B Waldo who is also a resident of this city is comparatively a young man about thirty five years of age, which is about the age when most of our judges have begun their judicial career. He has never taken any part in politics and is without any partisan feelings. He has a fine education is a man of careful and deliberate thought, is close student and devoted to his profession. He is a close logical reasoner on legal propositions and his opinions of the law command the respect of the bar. His cast of mind fits him to pass impartially upon the rights of others and his love for his profession would always prevent him from making any gross errors upon fundamental principles. We predict that in case of his election his strong integrity and conscientiousness added to his painstaking ability and ambition for a judicial fame will make him one of the most satisfactory judges we have ever had upon the supreme bench. His age is a very strong point in his favor, for it promises steady progress while Kelly's advanced age forbids the prospect of improvement. Waldo's freedom from political enmities and his Oregon nativity will be great elements of popular strength, while Kelly's long connection with doubtful political schemes and tricks will tell largely against him with the sober thinking people everywhere. It is the painstaking student and earnest thinker only who makes the great judge.

One third of the population of California live in San Francisco and as an exchange says with but few manufacturing or industrial resources of any kind to sustain such a vast multitude. What else can be expected but great privation among the poorer classes? Even among the large proportion of well dressed and apparently prosperous classes of that city the comfortable resident of the country can little imagine to what makeshifts and straits they are reduced and compelled to resort to keep up a respectable (?) appearance. Life with them is a constant struggle and a hard one to keep their heads above water while many give up the fight in despair and sink to rise no more. This is true in a smaller extent in every city of any importance on the Pacific coast which presents thousands of opportunities for comfortable and happy country homes. It is one of the anomalous characteristics of human nature, this love of the slavish life of the town in preference to the purer freedom of the country.

Marion county republicans were somewhat divided for awhile after their county convention was held and loud talk of bolting was heard but having had time to consider the situation they are now with one or two exceptions working together for the success of the ticket which will receive about the usual five hundred majority, while some of the candidates on the state ticket may receive a hundred or two more.

An effort was made in San Francisco some time ago to oust some of the city officials on the ground that their promise to cover a certain part of their salary into the public treasury if elected was a sort of a bribe to the voters. The attempt to oust them failed but they have never offered to fulfill the promise. Such promises are not generally of sufficient value to constitute a bribe.

The 85 000 republican voters of Kentucky have twenty four votes at Chicago, two more than the 170,000 voters of Iowa. Worse than this, the 85 000 in Kentucky represent no possible power of assistance in the election of a president, yet they want to force on states like Iowa which must furnish the votes, a candidate who is not wanted.

An allusion on our part to the frauds in the state printing in which the editor of the Standard was a participant leads that paper to see in the article "that which is not to be seen." The only obscenity in the article is in the subject not in the language or in the caption. The subject is the author of the paragraph in the Standard.

The republican state convention of Illinois presents one of the fiercest political fights which has ever been made inside of a party in this country. Its proceedings up to a late hour are found in our telegraphic columns.

FRIDAY MORNING MAY 21 1880

CITY.

TURF MATTERS.—A correspondent writing from Hillsboro under date of the 20th sends the following: "A match race has been made between a horse called Pop Eye George and [illegible] single dash of one half mile for $200. Sixty dollars forfeit has been put up. To come off at the fair grounds on Saturday, May 22d, at this place. On Monday there will be two races under the society rule in which M. Tongue and Mr Porter will name Lucy A. Scoggin and Powers Jim Merritt, Rosse Record. The track is in fair condition and it is supposed that fast time will be made. Also a trotting race."

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.—The British Benevolent Society intend to celebrate Her Majesty's birthday by a grand service in Trinity Church on Sunday evening next. The fine choir of that church will be greatly augmented by some of our best vocal and instrumental performers and a well selected programme has been chosen. The whole will be under the leadership of Mr. Kinross. The discourse will be delivered by the chaplain of the society, the Rev John Rosenberg. The annual dinner will take place on Monday, the 24th, at the Esmond.

SHOT IN THE HAND.—A few days ago Geo Brinn, a lad 15 years old, whose parents live on Salmon creek, was engaged making a ramrod for a shotgun. In some manner unexplained the gun was discharged and the charge of duck-shot entered his right hand, shattering it very badly. A surgeon was summoned who went out to attend to him. He amputated the thumb and a portion of the fore finger, and hopes to save the balance of the hand.

FOR VICTORIA.—All persons are notified that the excursion to Victoria leaves here tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock from the foot of Ash street. All who desire can secure beds on the steamer to-night. A number of passengers arrived by the steamship Oregon to avail themselves of this cheap trip. Representatives of the leading papers of this state will accompany the excursion. Obtain tickets before going on board.

INSTALLATION OF GRAND OFFICERS.—Yesterday afternoon the officers of the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., were duly installed. The names of the elective officers have already been published. The following officers were appointed by the grand master, Chas E. Sitton, grand marshal, J. A. Davis, grand conductor; S. T. Ulm, grand guardian, H. C. Raymond, grand herald. The grand lodge adjourned last evening at 11 o'clock.

THE JUNE CONCERTS.—The artists who will compose the company at the concerts to be given at New Market theater commencing June 8th, are M. Espinosa, pianist, graduate of the Paris conservatory; Edgar Coursen and Henri Heyman, graduates of the royal conservatory at Leipsic, Mrs. Marriner Campbell, soprano, and Julius Henrichs, the great violoncellist. Subscription list now open at D. W. Prentice & Co's.

DECORATION DAY.—The people of Vancouver are requested to attend a meeting at the city hall on Monday evening next, 24th inst., to make the necessary arrangements for the proper observance of decoration day. An excursion is expected from Salem and Oregon City. There will be a parade of the troops at Vancouver Barracks, and addresses will be delivered by Gen. Howard and others.

ADDITIONAL ENUMERATORS.—Mr. Sukesdrof, supervisor of census, has recently appointed three additional enumerators for Multnomah county. These enumerators are J. M. Sparrow, J. P. Burkhardt and William Whitwell. The last named enumerator will be detailed to take the census in the Chinese quarters.

"ELIJAH" TO-NIGHT.—The Handel and Haydn society will render at New Market theater to-night Mendelssohn's grand oratorio of "Elijah." The concert will be for subscribing members only. Reserved seats can be secured at Morse's after 9 o'clock this morning. In order to give all subscribers an equal chance it has been decided to receive no more than six seats for any one person applying, regardless of the number of tickets he may hold.

RECOVERING.—Father Powers, of Astoria, who was so tenderly cared for by the good sisters of St. Vincent's hospital in this city for a number of weeks last winter, is now, contrary to all expectations of his friends and physicians, able to sit up and operate a chair on runners, moving himself without difficulty from one room to another. His friends are not without hope that he will be again able to appear on the street. His recovery, considering his advanced age and great afflictions, is considered wonderful.

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS.—The Brownsville mills have been closed for the last four months on account of the breakage in the dam last winter. During the stoppage the company have been engaged bring out from the east new machinery of the latest and most improved styles, and have made such permanent improvements on their canal as will render their water power second to none in the state. The mills will be started early next week.

ANNUAL ADDRESS.—J. A. Cruzan, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, is to deliver the annual address before the literary societies of Pacific University, at Forest Grove, Monday evening, May 31st. The commencement exercises begin Sunday, May 30th, with Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. G. H. Atkinson, D. D., and close with graduating exercises on the Wednesday following.

MR. CHAPLIN'S BENEFIT.—Next Wednesday evening has been designated as the time for the complimentary benefit tendered Mr. George D. Chaplin, who has been lying ill for some weeks at St Vincent's hospital. A very attractive programme will be presented on the occasion. Mr. Chaplin is a very deserving artist and is in need of pecuniary assistance. We hope to see a crowded house.

MARRIED.—Mr. W. P. Olds, of the firm of Olds & King, was united in marriage to Miss Lillian Cooke of Lafayette. The marriage was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents at Lafayette on Wednesday evening by Rev J. Boberg. During the evening the couple was serenaded by the band of that municipality. Mr. and Mrs Olds have the very best wishes of a host of friends.

NOT TO BE ROWED FOR.—The announcement in a morning cotemporary that the Grant cup would be rowed for on the 19th proximo was without authority and is not true. It may be that arrangements will be made to row for the cup on the 4th of July, but as yet nothing has been done towards fixing the date for the annual regatta between the Willamette and the Portland clubs.

SHOULDER CRUSHED.—Sammy Solomon, a boy employed in Niles & Beebe's printing establishment, was caught by one of the presses Wednesday afternoon, and suffered severe laceration of the flesh above his shoulder blade. His injuries, though painful, are not considered dangerous.

WILL START SATURDAY.—The Oregon will leave for Astoria Saturday morning to take a large shipment of salmon. The Dixie Thompson will take her passengers Sunday morning (the regular sailing day), leaving here at 4 o'clock. At Astoria the passengers will be transferred to the Oregon.

ENUMERATOR'S BLANKS FORWARDED.—Yesterday afternoon, Mr. H. F. Sukhsdorf, census supervisor, mailed 141 books, and four large sacks of papers to the different enumerators throughout the state. The blanks were quite sufficient to fill an express wagon.

MONEY RAISED.—After the morning service at Taylor street M. E. church last Sabbath morning, $8? was raised to defray the expense of making some needed repairs and improvements on the church.

A. F. & A. M.—There will be a regular communication of Portland Lodge No. 55, A. F. & A. M., at their lodge room, Masonic Temple, this (Friday) evening at 7 30 o'clock.

TO MERCHANTS.—Lemons, oranges, limes, figs, dates, all kinds nuts, bananas, pine-apples, always on hand. Fresh invoices by every steamer, at S. L. Stone's First and Ash streets.

Artistic Dressmaking. Latest styles in drapery. Mrs Poole, St Charles hotel.

Oh Pa, go to Bichel & Minville and buy Ma one of their dresses, 15 dollars the price, and they fit so well; 151 Third street is their address.

A SPLENDID WOOL BALING MACHINE.—Messrs Cox and Tibbetts, the enterprising commission merchants at the foot of Morrison street, have supplied a want which will be appreciated by every wool-grower and dealer. It is well known that wool in sacks takes up so much space that the freight which eventually comes from the producer reduces profits to a minimum figure. This bulkiness is reduced more than one half by a horse power baling machine which has been recently purchased and put into operation by the firm. The machine works very much like a cotton press and is quite simple. It has a capacity for turning out a bale every fifteen minutes and can pack on an average two and one-half sacks into one bale. The firm has been quite busy since wool began to come in and will have all they can do till the season closes.

AMPUTATIONS.—Dr. Jones and Rex performed two surgical operations yesterday at St. Vincent's Hospital. On operation was to amputate the leg of Thomas Atkinson, whose leg was badly crushed about two months ago at the Cascades. The limb sustained a compound fracture between the knee and ankle. Erysipelas set in and the fractured portions would not knit. The limb was amputated at the knee joint. Atkinson is aged 50 years. Little Johnny Moody, who accidently shot himself in the leg some weeks ago, was brought back to the hospital on Wednesday. His leg was found to be in a bad condition and Dr Rex and Jones deemed amputation necessary to save the lad's life. The limb was taken off above the hip joint.

CAMPMEETING.—From the Advocate it is learned that campmeetings will be held as follows: The campmeeting for the Dayton circuit will be held on the Webfoot campground commencing June 16th. A campmeeting will commence on the 17th of June, on the old campground near Goldendale, Klickitat county. By action of the quarterly conference of Brownsville and Shedd charges, the two circuits will unite in holding a campmeeting at the Roberts bridge campground near Shedd's station on the Calapooia to commence June the 17th and continue two weeks.

THE STAGE OF WATER.—The weather has been clear and quite warm during the past week, and, as a natural result considerable quantities of snow have melted in the mountains—sufficient to very perceptibly increase the volume of water in the Snake, Columbia and Willamette rivers. The temperature east of the Cascades has ranged from 50 to 76 degrees. Dispatches received during the week from various points on the Columbia indicate that the river has risen from 1 to 3 inches each day. The Willamette at this point is 3½ feet above extreme low water mark.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—A. L. Humphrey, of Lane county, died at his residence on the 18th instant at the ripe old age of 83 years. He was among the earliest comers to this coast. The date of his arrival on his coast is stated to be 1847. He came from New York and has resided in that county ever since. He has been a member of both the territorial and state legislatures, having served, we believe, in the senate of the latter and the council of the former. He leaves a number descendants. Mr Humphrey was a man of considerable wealth.

PERSONAL.

Mr Louis Lawson, for several months night operator in the office of the Northwestern Telephone Company has engaged in the service of Coulter, McBean & Co. contractors on the N. P. R. R. and will start for Spokan Falls this morning.

Major Lawrence Babbitt, who is sojourning in Portland on a leave of absence from his post at Fortress Monroe, will be a passenger on the outgoing steamer which will sail Sunday morning. He will be accompanied by Gen. E. B. Babbitt, who we learn will hereafter reside with his son.

MILITARY AND PERSONAL.

[From the Vancouver Independent.]

Lieut. J. W. Turner, 2d infantry, is at the garrison.

A new set of quarters is being erected in the arsenal grounds.

Gen C. G. Sawtelle returned from San Francisco on the Oregon.

Lieut. E. H. Brooke 21st infantry has gone to Fort Townsend on court martial duty.

Capt. S. P. Jocelyn, 21st infantry, arrived by the Oregon after an absence of a year on leave. Capt. Jocelyn will be stationed at Fort Townsend.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Don't fail to attend the great anniversary sale of Woodward, McQuiston & Bradshaw, corner of Second and Morrison. They have astonishing bargains in new dress goods black and colored cashmeres, mourning goods, fancy goods, lawns and calicoes, domestic goods, hosiery and parasols.

UP THE COLUMBIA.

The following dispatches, received at 6 o'clock last evening from up the Columbia, indicate the state of the weather:

Umatilla—Thermometer 66, heavy up wind; river rose 5 inches to day.

Wallula—Clear, strong up wind, thermometer 73, river rose 2 inches.

Scotts—Cloudy, heavy up wind; thermometer 56.

Celilo—Cloudy, strong up wind, river rose 2 inches to-day, thermometer 66.

NEW DOCKS.

Continued Improvements along the River Front—Wharves at Vancouver and the Lower Cascades.

Mr. Joseph Smith, the well known dock builder, in addition to the large extension of Ainsworth dock, has in course of construction under his supervision the following wharves:

For Capt George H. Flanders two docks, commencing sixty feet below Greenwich dock. They will each have a frontage of 70 feet and run back to the railroad about 230 feet. They will be built after the same style as Greenwich dock. The piles have been driven and the work will be completed after the June rise. Between the new and the present dock, sixty feet of open wharf for ballast will be built.

For Nicolai Bros., an open dock south of Weidler's sawmill, 70 feet front, running back 130 feet to the roadway. The dock was completed last night and will be used for storing lumber. Nicolai Bros will build this summer, a shed 50 by 74 feet on the dock.

At a meeting of the council Wednesday evening Mr Smith presented to that body a proposition to lease the public levee at the foot of Columbia street for wharf purposes. Heretofore the Smith Bros have used the high ground of the levee as a lumber yard and sundry parties have used the river front of the same tract for landing freight from boats barges and scows. Mr Smith proposes to build a wharf along the front of the levee conforming to the established wharf line, making the wharf 800 feet long, half of which will be two stories high, and to connect the same with the grades of Water street by a plank road to be kept open at all times. He also proposes to build a shed 40x60 for the use of the city in breaking stone with prisoners for street repairs and allow ships to discharge stone ballast for the city free of charge, and proposes to further compensate the city by paying a reasonable monthly rent by rebuilding the improvements destroyed by the elements and by turning the entire improvements over to the city at the end of the term for which he may lease the levee. The whole matter was referred to the committee on landings and wharves. Plans and drawings showing the nature and extent of the proposed improvements, accompany the petition.

Work on Ainsworth dock extension is progressing rapidly. More than half the roof is ready for sheathing and will be turned over to the tinners Monday.

A contract was awarded yesterday to Mr Smith for a dock for Mrs Turnbull at Vancouver. It will have a frontage of 170 and a depth of 89 feet, and will be situate a few hundred feet below the government dock.

He has also been awarded the contract for constructing a large wharf at the Lower Cascades for the O. R. & N. Co. This wharf will be 300 feet long and 60 feet wide. There will be suitable openings for cars on the side from the river and for boats in front. On the lower dock there will be a track for box cars to run clear under the first floor. Work will be commenced by the contractors as soon as the stage of water will allow, and be pushed forward to an early completion.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WALLA WALLA May 20.—The party of capitalists headed by Henry Villard are well pleased with the prospects of the country, and will without unnecessary delay have branch railroads to every desirable location. Good judges who are with the party but unconnected with the company claim that in four years $5,000,000 worth of grain will be raised annually in Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington. The people of this country, generally speaking, have great faith in that the company will act honorably and fairly with them in the matter of freights and transportation. The railroad between Umatilla and Wallula will be in running order in sixty days and from Wallula to Celilo by the fall.

Mr Villard stated to the press correspondent that the railroad to Grange City taking in Waitsburg and Dayton would be ready to remove next year's harvest. Since the advent of these railroad men and it is known that they mean business real estate has greatly advanced in price. Villard announces himself as being opposed to asking subsidies on the ground that it is not only improvable but unjust to the people.

Crop Prospects.

The crops this year bid fair to be better than even the last, which was the best this country ever had. The season will be two weeks late on account of recent cold weather. The fruit crop also will be immense, as we have experienced no frost to injure buds.

A Criminal Caught.

Julius Luffmann, a young man who had gained much good will and respect here was arrested at Dayton yesterday on requisition from the governor of Texas on a charge of perjury. The requisition was brought out by his father in law who had been following him about the United States and Europe for the last three years. It is said that he got away with between $30,000 and $40,000. He had lately been engaged in the hide and wool business here for a San Francisco firm.

HENRICHSEN & GREENBERG, jewelers, 149 First street, are now prepared to do all kinds of gold and silver plating. Tablespoons, teaspoons, forks, knives, casters and all articles in plated ware made like new for less money than they can be replaced. Special rates to hotel keepers or persons having more than an ordinary amount of work to be done.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA:

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands can be seen at our office:

Pendleton Oregon January 12 1880

Having suffered with my kidneys I was induced to try the Oregon Kidney Tea which relieved me in a short time. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a sure remedy for kidney difficulties.
GEO. W. BAILEY,
County Judge for Umatilla

Salem Oregon January 20 1880

Some time ago I bought a package of Oregon Kidney Tea, and after using it felt better than I had for years, and bought two boxes more, being unwilling to be without so valuable a medicine. My wife pronounces it the best kidney preparation in use.
ALFRED STANTON.

So brief and evanescent is the fame of beauty! To day on the lips of all men and triumphant in the eyes of all, to morrow forgotten as if she had not been. It is strange but people are already ceasing to speak of Sara Bernhardt. Only one resource never fails. Mme Rachel's Enamel Bloom is the sine qua non of perennial loveliness. For sale by J. A. Child, Druggist, corner of Second and Morrison streets.

POSITIVE VIRTUES!

The most of the so called great remedies possess only that sort of negative virtue which, while it may not often cure disease, will seldom endanger life. Bristol's Sarsaparilla is equally safe, but it is possessed of that positive or aggressive virtue which will not tolerate the presence of disease or impure blood, or humors in the human system where it is used, and thus it is that it always effects complete and lasting cures.

Do You Believe It?

That in this town there are scores of persons passing our store every day whose lives are made miserable by Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour and Distressed Stomach, Liver Complaint, Constipation, when for 75 cents we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by S. G. Skidmore & Co., Druggists, 151 First st., Portland, Or.

Eminent Men of Science have discovered that electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the iron in the blood. This accounts for the debility, low spirits and lack of energy a person feels when this vital element becomes reduced. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of iron, supplies the blood with its iron element, and is the only form in which it can enter the circulation.

We Challenge the World

When we say we believe we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, inasmuch as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child and we guarantee what we say. Price 10 cents, 50 cents and $1. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by S. G. Skidmore & Co., druggists, 151 First street, Portland Oregon.

Report of State Fair Committee on Wm. Scheffler's Wines and Brandy.

To the Board of Managers of the Oregon State Fair for the year 1879—DEAR SIR: Your committee, appointed to report on the exhibit of wines and brandies, do respectfully report that they have thoroughly examined and tested the PORT, SHERRY and AMBER WINES put on exhibition by Mr. Wm. Scheffler, of St Helena, Napa county, Cal., and that we have called in experts in aid of our judgment and would feel that we were doing Mr Scheffler great injustice did we simply report an exhibit of fine wines. The committee feel that they should go much further and say we find an exhibit of really very superior wines, which we feel justified in recommending to the confidence of all who have use for wines. We have every reason to believe them pure, and we can say for ourselves that they are delicious in their flavor.

We have also tested Mr Scheffler's SANITARY (VACUUM DISTILLED) GRAPE BRANDY, and is pronounced by connoisseurs brought to our aid as being wonderfully smooth and inviting—and the fact that by the new process of distilling adopted by Mr. Scheffler, the brandy is freed from the fusil oils, is a desideratum never before attained, as we believe, and should and doubtless will make Mr. Scheffler the leading brandy manufacturer on this coast. We would recommend to all druggists a trial of this brandy and these wines. And your committee would recommend the award of the society's diploma for SUPERIOR BRANDY AND WINES.

JOHN G. WRIGHT, Committeeman.
M. WILKINS, Pres State Ag. Soc'y
G. W. HUNT, Superintendent.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle 10 cents.

HORSE MEDICINE.
D. D. T. 1868.
AS A HORSE MEDICINE IT IS SUPERIOR to any Liniment ever invented. For RINGBONE, SPAVIN, SWEENEY, CALLOUS LUMPS, and OLD SORES, apply freely so as to blister from three to five days in succession; and in four or five days if not cured, repeat as at first. SPRAINS, STIFF JOINTS, BRUISES, WINDGALLS, and all slight ailments, apply a small quantity, so as not to blister. SADDLE SORES, CUTS, and all other sores, where the skin is broken, mix the Liniment, half and half, with any kind of oil and apply in moderation.
For sale by the Trade everywhere.

The market for breadstuffs is entirely void of life. There are only two vessels in port and they are loaded and will start for sea in a day or two About 4000 tons of wheat are in store and the daily arrivals from Snake river are quite large The high rates of freight the unsettled state of Liverpool and London markets the absence of tonnage and the fact that wheat shipped within a month will arrive out during harvest in England combine to make it impossible for dealers to name a price It is questionable whether Walla Walla wheat will bring $1 35 per ctl It is quoted only $1 4 in San Francisco The Elder took out last Tuesday about 1200 tons of wheat and flour part of it shipped by a firm to accommodate a country customer. The remainder was shipped for the reason that the only way to get rid of it was to put it aboard vessels in San Francisco

Flour shows no change over last week but a decline of 20 cents per bbl is reported from San Francisco and it is expected will influence the market to that extent here

Wool is coming in freely from Eastern Oregon but holders are disinclined to sell at the ruling prices. Late telegrams indicate firmness in San Francisco and eastern markets but no material advance Some sales were made yesterday and today at 25c for good and 26c for choice Valley wool is coming in very slowly It would bring one cent more than above quotations

Bacon is in great demand and the supply has been and will be small Hams, sides and shoulders sell readily at one cent above last week's quotations

Potatoes are in good demand at a slight advance Onions scarce and firm at $3 50@4 per bushel

MARK LANE REPORT.

Change of Weather needed by Growing Crops in England—Market Review

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

LONDON May 20—The Mark Lane Express says The aspect of agricultural affairs is but little advanced since last week. Night frosts in many districts have checked the development of wheat, which is generally backward and frequently thin. Unless genial weather sets in speedily chances of ultimate mischief to crops will be considerably increased Scotch advices are somewhat better

Although both in Mark Lane and the provinces, the demand for English wheat is somewhat inactive last week's prices were well maintained and even occasionally exceeded Imports of foreign have been sufficient to meet ordinary requirements without swelling stocks This circumstance and an unusual shortness in continental reserves has increased the confidence of buyers. If the price of wheat had not already fallen comparatively low doubtless trade would require all the support extraneous influence could afford to avert a further decline being caused by the liberation of spring stocks in America and increased imports consequent upon the reopening of northern Russian ports. Of late however a strong undercurrent of steadiness is gaining ground, and it seems that wheat at the present range of prices can be safely bought for speculation or consumption. Owners have strongly resisted any further reduction being encouraged by slightly unfavorable crop prospects An active strengthening influence undoubtedly has been continued, under which the coast is being rapidly cleared of cargoes at advanced prices Red winter sold at 25s 6d for the continent about the middle of the week The turning point also appears to have been reached on spot market, where the price of red winter has improved about a shilling per quarter

Maize on the spot has also been very firmly held and has slightly advanced both in London and Liverpool, while a shilling has been paid for good cargoes off coast.

The sales of English wheat last week were 255-794 quarters at 44s 9d per quarter against 57 299 quarters at 49s 8d per quarter for the corresponding week last year

The imports into the United Kingdom for the week ending May 8th were 1,014 906 cwt wheat and 115 440 cwt flour

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

Freights, Produce and General Merchandise—An Exhaustive Review.

[SPECIALLY REPORTED FOR THE OREGONIAN]

SAN FRANCISCO May 20—Freights—There is no special demand for tonnage. The outlook is good for an active inquiry in a few weeks. Rates for wheat nominal and firm.

Syrup—Products for local refineries sell as follows Bbls, 62½c half bbls. 65c kegs 70c; one gallon tins 80c. Hawaiian molasses 25@30c per gallon.

Tea—The next steamer will bring small consignment of new crop Japan jobbing at 40@42½c

Quicksilver—The combination rate is still 40c but it is thought less can be obtained at a concession on that figure

Rice—Mixed China is lower some lots being offered at $4 90@$4 95 Hawaiian table is held at 7¼c fb. round lots. No. 1 China is quoted at 6@6¼c. The movement from first hands is small.

Fish—The last steamer from Portland brought 4300 cases of Oregon canned salmon, most of which was sold prior to arrival The rate is firm at $1 25 on the river Sacramento river salmon $1 20 to $1 25 per dozen 1-pound tins. Pacific codfish is jobbing at 3@3½c in 50 fb bundles 4@4½c for selected and 5@5½c for boneless eastern codfish 7@7½c per fb, eastern mackerel $1 85@$1 75 for No. 1 in 15 fb kits, and $2 35 for mess in 20 fb kits

Leather—We quote sole 25@33c, harness $2@40c skirting, 32a37½c; calf skins, 70c@1 10 per lb wax and buff leather 18c20c per foot bridle $4a7 per side; kipskins $35a60c per doz.

Coal—Shipments from Australia have been renewed. It is believed that two or more cargoes are now on the way from the colonies. We quote Mount Diablo $4@4 50 Coos Bay $6 75a7 Seattle $6 50@7 50; Vancouver, $6@8, Wellington $8@8 50 Anthracite $9@11; Cumberland $12@13 foreign steam coals, $6 50@8 per ton

Coffee—Central American grades are dull at 15c 16c with further imports of 5860 bags on the 16th Manila, 15c; Java 24½a25c; ground coffee 25c per pound

Bags and Bagging—The Cashmere is now 108 days out from Calcutta with a full cargo She is expected about the 1st June Considerable settlements were made on the 15th to close contracts at a slight concession.

We quote wheat bags at 11@11¼ for spot lots, and 11½@11¾ for June and July delivery Second hand wheat bags are quoted at 8@8½. Burlap goods scarce and price firm wool bags steady for forward delivery at 50c for 3¾ pounds and 55 for 40 lbs hop cloth is selling at 13¾@14 potato gunnies are quiet at 13@14 according to weight.

The demand for money is reported by lenders to be very slow and the supply in banks continues large Commercial paper is discounted at 8@10 per cent. Call loans on first class securities can be had on very favorable terms say from 6 per cent down to 3 per cent mortgages 8a10 per cent and tax paid by lender, which is the law under the new constitution. Drafts on New York drawn at 12½@25c for mail and 20a30c premium per $100 for telegraphic exchange on London is 49⅛d for bankers' bills and 49⅝@49⅞d for commercial bills

Refined silver is 11 per cent discount Mexican dollars quiet at 93c buying and 94 selling

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

DR. SPINNEY,

No. 11 Kearny Street

Treats all Chronic and Special Diseases

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure

MIDDLE AGED MEN

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free Thorough examination and advice $5 Call or address
